

JACOB LOREE

jacob.lore@ryerson.ca

EDUCATION

Ryerson University
PhD in Economics 2015 - 2019

Wilfrid Laurier University
M.A. in Business Economics 2014 - 2015
Master's Thesis: "Income Inequality and Self-Reported Health"

University of Western Ontario
B.A. Honours in Economics 2009 - 2014
Honours Thesis: "The Effect of Human Capital Increases on Income Inequality in the United States"

AWARDS AND DISTINCTIONS

Ryerson Graduate Scholarship 2015
John Weir Master's in Economics Scholarship 2014 – 2015
Laurier Graduate Scholarship 2014 – 2015

EXPERIENCE

Teaching Assistant – to Professor Missios in "Intermediate Microeconomics" 2015
Held office hours for students

Teaching Assistant – to Professor O'Neil in "Economic History" 2015
Graded midterm and assignments

Teaching Assistant – to Professor Ruffle in "Advanced Microeconomics" 2015
Graded all assignments, midterms, and finals. Met with students to go over issues, ran assignment tutorials

Teaching Assistant – to Professor Mcleod in "Intermediate Microeconomics" 2014
Graded all assignments, proctored exams, and met with students weekly to go over material

Research Assistant – to Professor McMurray 2014-2015
Gathered journal articles related to topic, created search strings and database of papers, helped cull list of appropriate articles, helped generate a theoretical model

ACTIVITIES

Vice President of Finance for Western Liberals Club at Western University 2010-2012
In charge of budgeting events (social and guest speakers)

Member of the Canadian Economics Association 2012-2015

Graduate Representative for Laurier Economics Department
Represented graduate students at all official department meetings

2015RESEARCH SKILLS

Extensive knowledge of STATA, Eviews, SAS, SPSS, and Excel
Knowledge of most citation software
Experienced in research presentations and papers
Designated “Highly Qualified Person” by AGEWELL network
-Helped create theoretical model of regional innovation
-Created empirical framework to judge results

SKILLS AND QUALIFICATIONS

Extensive knowledge of Microsoft Office
Ability to collect and organize data in several database programs
Driven and meticulous
Excellent written and oral skills

WORKING PAPERS

Income Inequality and Self-Reported Health in the United States
Human Capital and the Effect on Economic Growth: An Update

20152015